

Greenwood Farm Historical, Cultural & Arts Association, Inc.

264 Richmond Road
Richmond Heights OH

<http://www.greenwoodfarmassn.org>

PRESIDENT

David H. Roche

August, 2010

Dear Friend,

VICE PRESIDENT

Iarcia Starkey Morgan

On behalf of the Greenwood Farm Historical, Cultural and Arts Association, Inc., (Greenwood Farm), we are asking for your support. We are seeking donations of items to be used for Greenwood Farm's 2nd Annual "Fun Fest at the Farm" community event on Saturday, September 25, 2010 from 1 - 5p.m.

TREASURER

David H. Roche

Kelli Coleman, president of K-9 Kingdom has generously offered to organize a portion of the day's activities centered on dogs, cats, and family pets. You can help by providing related prizes for a Chinese Raffle. Ideas include restaurant coupons, gift cards, gift baskets, sports and theatre event tickets, pet paraphernalia, professional services, etc. All those donating items will receive name recognition at the event.

SECRETARY

Marilyn Wilson

Greenwood Farm is located at 264 Richmond Road, Richmond Heights, Ohio. The 17-acre property includes several historically important structures. In addition, it encompasses a very scenic section of the East Branch of Euclid Creek, which warrants close environmental supervision. Preservation of both the property and the buildings will enable all the residents of Richmond Heights and surrounding communities to experience the rich history and beauty of the Farm!

DIRECTORS

Bob Dresser

Kathryn Gambatese

Lee Case

Gaye Saks

Greenwood Farm Historical, Cultural and Arts Association, Inc. is a non-profit corporation created by the City for the purpose of restoring, operating, maintaining, and programming Greenwood Farm. All proceeds from the "Fun Fest at the Farm" will enable the Board of Directors to continue with the necessary restoration work.

When you are contacted either by Kelli Coleman or one of her colleagues, we hope you will support our efforts by giving generously! Thank you for helping with the 2nd Annual "Fun Fest at the Farm"!

Sincerely,

Marilyn Wilson, Secretary
Greenwood Farm Board of Directors
(216) 383-8867 (H)
wdonmar@sbcglobal.net

Mission Statement:

Greenwood Farm Historical, Cultural and Arts Association, Inc., is dedicated to the preservation, renovation, operation, maintenance and programs of Greenwood Farms, and enhancing the use of the property by promoting and strengthening the diverse historical, environmental, cultural, and artistic assets of the community.